With a history as rich as this city's, it's not surprising we have fabulous architecture. In an effort to showcase what Little Rock has to offer in terms of beautiful homes, we put our heads together and picked five Little Rock houses we love. We admit it: beauty is in the eye of the beholder, but we think you'll agree these homes represent the diverse style of our city, from east to west and north to south.

1. WEST LITTLE ROCK | CONTEMPORARY Although few and far between, there are wonderful examples of architecture in the style of Frank Lloyd Wright and E. Faye Jones around town. This one, designed by local firm Taggart Architecture and built in 2008, sits atop a hill in west Little Rock and enjoys a view of Pinnacle Mountain that very few homeowners can boast. The low horizontal lines and copious windows made a contemporary architecture lovers out of us.
